Activity Summary

The Teachers' Day celebration and inauguration of the ACSES (Association of Computer Science and Engineering Students) committee was a grand event filled with tradition, respect, and camaraderie. The festivities began with a traditional Guru Vandana performed by Rucha, setting a respectful tone for the entire occasion.

The event included the felicitation of a guest, acknowledging their presence and contribution to the celebration. Following this, Prof. Sagare Sir introduced all the new committee members of ACSES, and badges were presented to each member according to their respective posts, symbolizing their roles and responsibilities within the committee.

The dignitaries present, including the Head of the Department Prof. (Dr.) D.V. Kodavade, Dean Prof. (Dr.) S.K. Shirgave, Prof. S.C. Sagare, and the President of ACSES, Miss. Sanika Tade, delivered speeches officially inaugurating the committee. Their words likely inspired and motivated the committee members to fulfill their duties with dedication.

The Teachers' Day program kicked off with a symbolic cake-cutting ceremony, signifying gratitude and respect for the teachers. Students actively participated by distributing flowers to their teachers, expressing their appreciation for the guidance and knowledge imparted to them.

Adding a creative touch to the event, Miss. Shruti Naik's captivating dance performance and Miss. Aparna Thorvat's thought-provoking speech contributed to the overall atmosphere of inspiration. The celebration showcased the talents and skills of both faculty members and students through outstanding performances.

To foster a sense of camaraderie and fun, students organized entertaining games for the teachers, creating a lively and enjoyable environment. Mr. Abhishek Biyani delivered the vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all participants and attendees, ensuring that everyone felt appreciated for their contributions.

The event concluded on a delightful note with a refreshment session, providing an opportunity for faculty and students to interact and share moments of relaxation together. The celebration and inauguration were marked by a spirit of appreciation, talent, and unity, leaving a lasting and memorable impression on everyone involved.
